

GriefWorks

Children's grief support

GriefWorks' mission is to make available grief support services to mourning children, ages 5-18, and their family members at no cost to them.

To celebrate 10 years of benefitting the lives of North Texas children and families, GriefWorks will be hosting two educational events for the community and healthcare professionals presented by internationally known author, educator & grief counselor:

SAVE THE DATES:

ALAN D. WOLFELT, PH.D.

Director, Center for Loss and Life Transition,
Fort Collins, Colorado

Tuesday, April 6th, 2010, 7:00-9:00 p.m.

Free Program Open to the Community

Understanding Grief: Helping Yourself &
Others When Someone Dies

Greenville Ave Church of Christ, Richardson

Wednesday, April 7th, 2010,

9:00 a.m.-3:30 p.m.

A Seminar for Caregivers & Professionals

Helping Children & Teens Cope with Grief:
A "Companioning" Philosophy for Caregivers

Greenville Ave Church of Christ, Richardson

CEUs available for professionals/Lunch provided

$95 early registration before March 12th, 2010

Register online for the seminar: www.grief-works.org

Dr. Wolfelt attracts large audiences of community members and healthcare professionals wherever he speaks.
Find more information on Dr. Wolfelt at www.centerforloss.com.

Help us celebrate ten years of service by participating with GriefWorks!

To find out more information, please contact GriefWorks Director Larry Barber by email at

lbarber@christian-works.org

or by calling

972-960-9981